

Project ideas

My students are supposed to spend two rigorous years of studies away from their families, in a boarding school. It is a new experience. They set foot to explore. It may sound easy to say two years would elapse. However, let the students themselves reflect upon to draw conclusions and put forwards a roadmap to implement at school in the future. It is a sharing of opinions cross the world.

Prospective questions

1. What are some of the potential problems that you face before joining your school?
2. Are there any criteria that a potential student should have to join your school?
3. Do you need to have a test?
4. Do you need to have a CV, recommendation letter, or resume for enrolling in this school?
5. Who is responsible to be subscribing to school?
6. Is the school in your native town?
7. How far is it away from your home or hometown?
8. What are the available streams of studies at school?
9. Does your school have any boarding- school?
10. Are you supposed to stick the bylaw system of your school?
11. Does the absence count in assigning marks,
12. Who is in charge to manage the relationships vertically and horizontally within your school?
13. How many years are you supposed to spend at school?
14. Are there enough facilities at school?
15. Do you have any students' corner at school?
16. What are the different offered opportunities, once you have finished this year or the coming years?
17. Do you think your school provides more chances for your professional growth?
18. Don't you think it would foolish spending these two years of studying is a foolish idea?
19. What are the subjects that you take within these two years?
20. Are they compulsory or optional
21. Is there any national exam you need to take by the end of the year?
22. Would you consider the time spend at school as internship time?
23. What are the obstructions that you may face once you have completed your two years?
24. Do you think that it is too early to leave your family for studies?
25. Do you think a subject that should not be taught at school, whereas there are others that should be included in the syllabus?
26. How would evaluate your experience in your school, be it, a high school, post-high school, or a college/ university?
27. How would you advice the newly recruited to do?
28.

We are interested in receiving documents, writing be it a poem, prose or drawing as a reflections of what is going inside and outside school. The responses may be answering the above questions....

Abdesalam ZOUITA

Lâayoune, Morocco

CPGE- Lissane Eddine Bno Elkhatib